oceenst for Sunday: For Virginia-Rain and northeaserly Sunday; Monday fair.

PRICE THREE CENTS.

VOL. 14. NO. 244.

U. S. SENATOR JOHN W. DANIEL AS CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

A Strong Sentiment Steadily Growing in His Favor as the Available Democratic Nominee for Highest Gift From the Nation.

PRESS SPREADS THE MOVEMENT.

In Washington the Selection is Regarded By Many of the Leading Democrats as a Happy One.

ANTI-BRYANISTS FAVOR IT.

Major Daniel's Name Would Have the Effect of Bringing in Line the Solid South.

ALSO THE WEST AND THE PACIFIC COAST.

Congressman Bankhead, Who is a Candidate for Minority Leader, Favors the Movement.

CONGRESSMAN WHEELER

Pays the Virginian a High Tribute-Hon. B. B. Munford and Others Talk.

of "where is the man to suc eading editorial this morning. The can gested by the Times is given wide pub-licity by the press of the country in this morning's issue. The selection is regard-ed as a particularly happy one in this The man who do not believe in mism think that the right man has found and that these who are wavin their support of the Nebraskan eventually realize that Daniel is the The subject is being generally disastrons to Democracy. On the other hand it is argued that Daniel has no pet theories and will not advocate any meas-ure which is detrimental to the success of the party.

THE STRONGEST MAN. THE STRENGEST MAN.

The Times' editorial was shown to many promisent men to-day and they all expressed the opinion that if firyan is to be beaten and the Democratic party saved, Daniel is the strongest man to do it. All acknowledge the eloquent Virginian's popularity in the South and as stated in the Times, be has the entire confidence of the country. The Pacific coast States are a unit against Bryanism and as aptly stated to your correspondent to-day by a Democrat of national reputation, "with the Solid South and Pacific coast to commence with, and the centicoast to commence with, and the confidence of the North in Daniel, I believe he is the strongest candidate of the party LEADER BANKHEAD FAVORS HIM On account of the faperal of the late Vice-President very few of the party leaders are in Washington to-night. Many have also returned to their homes, after making arrangements for the coming session of Congress. Representative Bankhead, of Alabama, who is a candidate for the missile bankers its of the Monte. the minority lendership of the House, when seen by The Times correspondent to-night regarding the candidacy of Sen-ntor Dunfel for the Presidency in 1990, said: "Senator Daniel is one of the greatest men in the party. He descrees any honor that could be hystowed upon him. He is popular in all sections of the coun-try and would make a good President." ONE OF THE ABLEST.

Representative Wheeler said: "Senator Daniel is one of the ablest men in the Senate. He has the respect of his party and the country at large. He is not only a great orator, but a man of the soundest judgment on all questions affecting the interests of the country."

The possibility of Senate, Daniel is un-

the interests of the country."

The popularity of Senator Daniel is unquestioned, and the two representatives quoted express the general opinion that prevails both in the House and Senate. It is generally understood that Representative Suizer of New York, as the leader of the House Democracy of that State, is in favor of nominating some one in the place of Bryan in 1900.

THE MOVEMENT WILL GROW.

The press of the country scenas to be

THE MCVEMENT WILL GROW.
The press of the country scens to be almost a unit in its opposition to Bryan.
Mr. Willis P. King, the Washington political manager of the Publishers' Press Association, which supplies several hundred papers, to-night sent out a most eulogistic story regarding Daniel, and predicts that the movement will grow in magnitude which will result in the defeat of Bryan. Senator Daniel will reach Washington after miduight from attend-Washington after midnight from attend-ing the funeral services over the remains of the late Vice-President. Senator Martin returned to Virginia this morning.

AS VIEWED HERE. The suggestion of Senator John W. Daniel as the Presidential nominee of the Democratic party in 1900 struck a resonate chord in the hearts of Richmond people. That his selection for the highest honor in the gift of the party would give unbounded pleasure to Virginians, and meet with their loyal support at the polls, was clearly indicated in a number of interviews yesterday.

Nevertheless, it was impossible to secure a full and candid expression of opinion as to the availability of Sanator Dan-iel. When gentlemen were asked this question, the response was evasive, or clas-a request to be excused from an expression on that point. In fact, most of them who were interviewed confessed to igno large might unite.

HIS FOREIGN POLICY.

Despite the fact that Major Duniel has poken at length on the vital Issue of his certailsm, there still exists ignorance as o his exact attitude toward that quesseace shall have been restored has t he would not decline a nomina 1990, and that he would announce his andidacy upon receipt of assurances o support in the various sections of the

HAS THE TIME COME? Suggestion of Senator Daniel's name naturally brings up the old question, Has the time come when a Southern man can become President of the United States?

WOULD SUPPORT HIM. WOULD SUPPORT HIM.

Attorney-General Montague, who was seen at his home last evening, was averse to expressing an opinion at first, but after a few moments' deliberation, said:

"Of course, if Senator Daniel is a candidate for the nomination, Virginia would support him, and I would cordially concur in any movement to promote this end. "I am in no position to know of his availability outside of this State. At present Bryan is the predominant figure in our party, and no public man of this him with so great devotion."
GLAD TO HONOR MAJOR DANIEL

Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, chairman of the party in the State, excused himself from an expression concerning the availability an expression concerning the availability of Senator Daniel, saying that he hadn't of Schator Danker, saying as a manufacture data upon which to base an opinion that would be of value.

"But no one would delight more to honor Senator Daniel than I." he said, and he added "I think the Virginia people as a whole would cordially support him are condition."

him as a candidate."

Hon. B. B. Munford, formerly in the State Senate, and an influential Democrat, was not prepared to express an opinion without opportunity for deliberation, "However, you may say for me that I will cordially support Senator Darfiel for any office to which he may

UNION JACK STILL FLIES

Over Ladysmith, But the Boers Antic-_ pate I's Speedy Reduction. Mafeking in Bad Plight.

LONDON, Nov. 25.-The position in Natal remains full of perplexities which the censorship has increased. Although a division and a half have now reached Durban, that place is practically powerless until supplied with cavalry and artilless until supplied with carrive the situation will undoubtedly remain grave.

With three beleaguered garrisons in Natal besides Kimberley and Mafeking. and no signs of succor in the immediate future, it is no wonder that the outlook is regarded as distinctly gloomy to-night and that the most possible is made of General Methuen's success, such as it was. The battle decided nothing, and it seems certain that many experts are of the opinion that the return of the pursuing cavalry without getting in touch with

(Continued on Fifth Page.)

GOEBEL WILL NOT CONTEST.

Democratic Leaders Say He will Abide by Decision of Electoral Board, FRANKFORT, KY., Nov. 25.-The Dem ratic leaders now assert that Goebel he is not given the confidence of elec-led against members of the House and bree in the Senate, is regarded as an

Governor Bradley still maintains a guard the State arsenal, and it is stated that be State War Department was never so ally equipped with shooting material. ng as the day of final settlement ap-

THE RUSSIAN TRADE TREATY.

A Movement to Remodel it is Now Under Consideration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.-Relative to the statement attributed to Count Mouravieff, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, that the propriety of remodelling the trade treaty of 1832 between the United States and Russia was now under consideration, it is learned that about two months ago this movement was initiated by the Russian Embassy here. The success of the French government in reby the incentive to the Russian move.

The indications of rather formidable opposition to the approval by the Senate given some concern to the officials of the State Department, who have had much to do with its negotiations. This treaty was perfected with the greatest difficulty and was in itself regarded as the means of restoring the good will and cordiality between the United States and France, which has undergone a great strain within the last two years.

Its failure now, it is said at the State epartment, would be most unfortunate, and the officials are prepared to show to the Senate by statistics that the United States has secured all of the advantages from a purely economic point of view that could be expected, having regard to fair treatment of France

BALTIMORE AND OHIO.

Charges Affecting Both the Financia and Physical Condition,

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.-The Commercial Advertiser says:

Although the utmost reticence is preserved in Baltimore and Ohio circles in this city regarding the plans under consideration, there are indications that some important arrangements are under way affecting both the financial and physical condition of the property.

Coupled with rumors of unofficiating common and preferred stock, there is talk of a traffic deal between the failtimore and Ohio and the Illinois Central rali-Neither President Cowen nor any other officers of the Baltimore and Ohio are inclined to shy anything about what is ASKS FOR INVESTIGATION.

Former Senator Call Charges Undue Influence in Election of Taliaferro, WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Former Sen-ator Call, of Florida, has prepared a statement for presentation to the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elec-tions, asking that the manner of the elec-tion of Schator-elect Taliaferro, of Flor-ida, be investigated.

He charges that undue means were used to secure Mr. Tallaferro's election, and asks that he be not seated. He asserts that the election was due to the unfair influence of the Standard Oil Company, which, he says, used money to accomplish its purpose.

RICHMOND, VA. SUNDAY NOVEMBER 26, 1899.

Mr. Call also asks the Industrial Commission to investigate the charges as in-dicating the methods of trusts in politics.

MAINE MYSTERY SOLVED?

Blown Up by Gun Cotton Torpedoes

Planted for the Purpose.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The World tonorrow will publish a letter from Hanna, nating that United States officials, after conths of secret investigation, have dis-torical that the battleship Maine was own up by gun cotton torpedoes, plant-

In the bay for the purpose.

The gun cotton, to pounds of which was seed, was sent from Barcelona to Admiral Manterola, commander of the port of invans, and was either stolen from the negatine, where the stuff was stored, or aken away by the officials in charge. Admiral Manterola's records will un-foubtedly show the names of his sub-refinates who had direct control of the xplosives, and in that way the identity of the authors and executioners of the covered.

Two or three men were engaged in the destruction of the Maine.

A steam launch, of Suanish make, and now used by the United States in Havana harbor, conveyed the two torpedoes, according to the new evidence, to a point within a few feet of the birth of the Maine and anchored the A. The torpedoes was keen in position by means of buoys Mains and anothered the ... The torpedoes were kept in position is means of buoys floated eleven feet under water and ten feet above the anchors to prevent them from being swept away. Thetorpedoes were exploated by contact with the keel of the Maine as she swung at anchor.

RICHMOND AND TIDEWATER R. R.

Col. Burgwin and Mr. Christian Speake at Mathews C. H.

GLOUCESTER, C. H., VA., Nov. 25 .-Special-A successful railroad meeting was held at Mathews Courthouse this afdernoon, when Colonel Burgwyn, chief en-dineer of the Richmond and Tidewater allroad, and Mr. Fairfax C. Christian adressed the meeting.
The people of Mathews are determined o capture the terminus of the road, if Railroad Meeting.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 25,-The natual meetings of the Charleston and avannah, Green Pond and Walterboro annual meetings of the Charleston Savannah, Green Pond and Walterboro Ashley River and Walterboro and West ern railroads were held here to-day These lines are part of the Plant Sys were re-elected except that Major C. S. Gadssien, of this city, was glosen president of all the lines mentioned. The meetings were attended to Pracident R. G. ings were attended to Pracident R. G. Erwin Colonel B. W. Wrenn and President H. M. Flagler, and other officials and a sister, Mrs. C. C. Scott. He was always considered a careful and directors.

General Ruggles Chairman, FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 25.— Special. An important meeting of the Special An important meeting of the Executive Committee of the Battlefields Park Association was held here to-day.

General Geo. D. Ruggies, of Washington, was made a member of the committee in place of Hon. Wm. A. Little, resigned. At Judge James B. Sener's request, General Ruggies will be chosen chairman of the committee on January 1, 1999, when the Judge's resignation takes effect.

AGUINALDO IS DESERTED

And the Army Which a Fortnight Ago Was Entrenched at Tarlac is Fugitive in the Mountains.

MANILA, Nov. 25.-4:50 P. M.-The news which the steamship Brutus brings from Dagupan dispels all doubts that the so-called Filipino republic is crumial. ing like a house of cards. Aguinaldo is leserted or being abandoned by the poli-icians, and the army which a fortnight go was entrenched at Tariae and exerago was entrenched at Tariae and exercised a de facto government over ninetenths of the people of Luzon, is fugitive in the mountains with small hope of recatablishing the machine. The army is scattered in the hills on both sides of the radiroad and widely so arated detachments are within the corden which Generals Lawton and Wheaton have cemented. The ruling spirit of the Cabinet is a prisoner in Manila—a white elephant on the hands of the authorities, and the small fry are tumbling over one another to get to Manila. Three provincial governors have arrived in Manila to request to get to Manila. Three provincial governors have arrived in Manila to request General Otts to install them in their old offices under the new regime. Dr. Luna a brother of General Luna and a prominent insurrectionist, has arrived here sha his friends and many others are applying to General Otls for permission to enjoy the luxuries of Manila after months of separation from civilization.

NO DEMONSTRATION.

There were no demonstrations over the

There were no demonstrations over the victory here. The flars are flying at half-mast out of respect for Vice-President Hobart. The natives appear unmoved and

Last night parties of insurgents made

Trinidad east of Arinsay, toward Bayombang, escorted by two hundred men of the Bulacan battalion who had dwindled from six hundred within a week General Mino, who fought the Thirty-third at San Jacinto, is supposed to have joined him. A letter from General Pino has been intercepted, in which the writer says that two hundred of his men were killed or wounded that he had had enough and was going to the mountains.

ON THE TRAIL.

General Young, with the Maccabees and Chase Troop of cavalry, is still on the trail of the insurgents. The men and

ON THE TRAIL.

General Young, with the Maccabees and Chase Troop of cavalry, is still on the trail of the insurgents. The men and horses are hadly used up. General Wheaton is trying to get reinforcements and supplies to them from the coast. General Young left Tayugon November 13th to connect with General Wheaton with the Maccabees and three troops of cavalry. Maccabees and three troops of cavalry. Two troops, commanded by Captain Hun-

(Continued on Fifth Page.)

The Alvey Mystery Has Been Cleared up at Last.

HE WAS UNDER WATER FOR SIXTEEN DAYS,

The Head and the Shoulders Heavily Coated With Mad.

WHERE THE BODY WAS FOUND.

In a Deep Hole Near the Chesapeake and Ohio Tank-Those Who Discovered the Body-Misunderstanding Concerning the Reward.

The body of Mr. John T. Alvey was re overed from the canal near the corner of Sixth street, on the south side, yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, by Mr Charles Miller, of 700 south Pine street assisted by Mr. Charles Houchins, night watchman of the Union Depot.

Coroner Taylor viewed the remains, but deemed an inquest unnecessary, and the body was turned over to Undertaker Bliley, who prepared it for burial.

The funeral will be from the residence No. 519 west Grace street, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. Y. Downman, of All Saints Episcopal church. The following gentlemen will act as pall-bearers: Messrs. F. H. Deane, John F. Jacob, H. W. Claiborne, D. C. Zallicofter, S. R. Gates, E. D. Starke, W. L. Waring and F. J. Starke.

Mr. Alvey was born in Richmond fifty-seven years ago, and spent a portion of his early life in New Orleans. He was married in 182 to Miss Mary S. Starke, and industrious business man, and was prompt and systematic in all his dealings. He was not a church member, but server and attentive listener at every service.

Rev. James Y. Downman, rector of All Saints, said yesterday that he noticed that something was preying upon the mind of Mr. Alvey the Sunday before he disappeared. He was quite resiless as disappeared. He was quite restless as he sat in church and twisted his moustache nervously.

The news of the finding of the body
The news of the finding of the body terday, for it had been hoped that he would be found alive some place.

MEETING OF GRAIN TRADE. A general meeting of the Grain Trade as held in the rooms of the Exchange was held in the rooms of the Exchange yesterday morning at H.20, the President, Mr. S. T. Beveridge in the chair; Capt. B. A. Jacob, secretary. The President, in feeling and appropriate remarks, announced to the Trade the death of Mr. Jno. T. Alvey, who for more than twenty had been a member of the Fr. ty years had been a member of the Exchange, and stated that the meeting was called to take such action as the members might deem proper.

JOHN T. ALVEY.

Mr. Richmond Lewis moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft suitable resolutions in respect to the memory of the deceased member; said committee to report to a general meeting to Last night parties of insurgents made feeble attacks upon Imus and the Zapote bridge. The only large organized fores of insurgents known to remain are those in the Cavite province at San Mateo and in the Zambales mountains, though several scaports have large garrisons.

Aguinaldo began his retreat with two thousand men under General Gregory del Pilar. That force was probably reduced to its present proportions by desertions. The last definite news as to Aguinaldo's whereabouts is that he passed through the deceased member; said committee to report to a general meeting to held Monday, November 27th, at 11:20 A. M. The motion was adopted and the President appointed Messrs. S. R. Gates and W. F. Richardson, Jr., as the committee. The meeting then adjourned until to-morrow morning.

STORY OF THE RECOVERY.

Mr. Charles Miller and his brother, George, were on their way to work at the spike mills, located in Manchester. They were making a short cut for the

for the third draw."

Then George Miller proceeded on his way and Charles hurried to the Union Depot in search of a policeman to help him. At the depot he met Mr. Charles Houchins, the night watchman, and told him of his find. A 'phone message was sent to the Second District Station and Officers Mattern and Wiltshire went to the seene.

Houching hurried to the spot and pulled the body from its watery grave.

When Coroner Taylor reached the scene he ordered he body to be carried to the Billey undertaking establishment, on Marshall street, where he made an examination and declared that an inquest was unnecessary, as it was a clear case of suicide. The body was then prepared for burial and turned over to the family at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The body was in a fairly good state of preservation, and the features were easily recognizable as those of Mr. Alvey. There was a thick coat of mud over the head and shoulders, which indicated that Mr. Alvey had dived head first into the was vey had dived head first into the wa-, and, in all probability, stuck in that sition in the mud at the bottom of the position in the man at the contract canal.

When Mr. Alvey's pockets were examined by the coroner the following articles were found: A pocket-knife, eye-glasses and case, store key, match box, card case, a bill for shore from Taylor & Brown, $117 in silver and copper, a handkerchief, and a portion of an envelope with two one-cent stamps and phrilon of the address of "Alvey Brothers, Richmond, Va." STORY OF THE CASE.

The story of the case is quite familiar to all the readers of The Times. Mr. Alvey, whose actions for several days had been noticed by his close friends as being somewhat peculiar, on Wednesday afternoon, November Sin, dictated his will to his confidential clerk, and then left his office about 5 o'clock.

of his connectant that we will be about 5 o'clock. He was seen by one or two acquaintnecs during the evening, and about $130 y'clock he was seen on the canal bank, thout a mile and a half west of the city. He borrowed a pencil from a man pass-ing, and wrote a note, which has never been found, and then proceeded on up the canal bank.

Still later in the evening a workman, on Still later in the evening a workman, on returning from his work up near Haxall's, found a derby hat on the bank of the canal. He picked it up, and, believing it to have been dropped from a passing train, carried it home.

The case was given to the Richmond National Detective Agency, of which Mr. A. M. Brownell is general manager, and a reward of $100 was offered for the recovery of the missing man, dead or alive. The detectives traced, quite cleverly, the missing man to the banks of the canal, but there all traces of him were lost.

The water was drawn off th canal, and a search made for the body, without suca search made for the body, without suc-cess. All sorts of clues were run down. Various reports were received from difthat a man answering the description of the missing man had been seen. All of these were faithfully worked by the dead committed suicide, and he frequently appreciate the opinion that the body that the body would be found in the nd, he was in a large degree prepared

ABOUT THE REWARD. n Thursday the case was given to the ef-of-Police to work, and it was ught that with the increased facilities sething definite would result. The something definite would result. The family had practically determined to increase the reward to $300, and this would have been officially amounced yesterday morning, as the circulars had been pre-on found early in the morning. The mount of the reward, therefore, was not oreased beyond the $100 that was origi-Acting under the misinformation con-erding the amount of the reward Mr. Miller applied to Major Howard yesterday norning for $300, the amount he under-tood had been offered. He was informed by the Major that no official announcement had been made of an increase, and that he was entitled to no more than the original $190. Mr. Miller immediately sought the aid of an attorney, and declared that he would enter suit for the clared that he would enter suit for the game. The play was almost entirely in Yale's territory in this half, although Princeton nover was able to get it beyond her opponent's fi-yard line. It was little wonoponent's fi-yard line. It was little wonoponent's fi-yard line.

ortion of the reward by Mr. Miller for a services in taking the body out of the

WORK OF THE DETECTIVES.

WORK OF THE DETECTIVES.

The finding of Mr. Alvey's body in the canal was the natural result of the investigations and clues worked by the Richmord National Detective Agency.

Mr. Alvey's movements had been closely followed by the detectives, and he had been located on the canal bank by them, and his hat was found there. Then his movements cama to an end.

and also had was to an end.

All other clues were run to earth with no encouraging results, and the agency and family bad always contended that Mr. Alvey had committed suicide willie mentally unbalanced, and that his body result overtrally be cound either in the eventually be found either in the

There are many deep holes in the ca-nal, into one of which the body undoubt-edly fell. The canal, proper, was thor-oughly searched, but the holes, or some of them, were overlooked. In this matter Detective Brownell was never satisfied; he never felt sure that the body was not in the canal.

in the canal.
On Thursday night the water pipe to the Chesapeage and Ohlo tank at the Secand street yards refused to work properly. There was something at the mouth of the pipe that kept the water back. An ompolye Friday morning used a long pole in pushing the object away, and there seems little doubt that the object

MISS CARRINGTON, NOW A BARONESS

The Marriage of a Virginia Girl to Baron Von Horn, of Dresden, Germany.

Miss Mabel Virginia Carrington, daughter of the late Samuel J. Carrington, of this city, has become the Barone. Von Horn, of Dresden, Germany.

The marriage became known from a letter received yesterday by her uncle, Mr. Peyton R. Carrington, and the announcement was made that the pair would reside in Dresden.

would reside in Dresien.

Miss Carrington was born in Boston and has spent most of her life there, but she was well known in this city, where she visited some two years ago.

She is possessed of a most exquisite voice, which she cultivated in Boston, afterwards going in Europe to complete her terwards going to Europe to complete her education. While here she delighted a education. While here she delighted a number of friends by her singing. While sojourning in Italy Miss Carrington with the Baron Von Horn. He fell in love with the captivating Virginian, and the marriage followed.

The father of the Baroness was one of Houchins, the night watchman, and told him of his find. A 'phone message was sent to the Second District Station and Officers Mattern and Wiltshire went to the secne.

In the meantime Messrs, Miller and

In One of the Greatest Contests Ever Played.

POE DROPPED A PRETTY GOAL FROM THE FIELD

Winning the Game by the Narrow Margin of Eleven to Ten.

YALE SURPRISED AND CHAGRINED

Up to That Time the Blue was Seem ingly a Sure Winner - Sharpe, Yale's Half Back, Made a Spec tacular Goal, Sending the Ball Between the Posts from Back of the 45-Yard Line.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 25 .- Just ne short minute before the close of one of the greatest foot-ball contests ever played between Princeton and Yale, little Arthur Poe, Princeton's right end, a member of the famous Poe family, dropped a beautiful goal from the field and won the game for the Tigers by the narrow practice or a game, attempted to kick goal from the field. To say that Yale was surprised, dumb-founded and chargined by that kick is to put it very mildly, for up to that time the Blue was mildly, for up to had the seemingly a sure winner.

PRINCETON SCORES FIRST.

Princeton had scored previously, after tweive minutes of play, mainly through a grand 22-yard run by Refter, who carbon the ball hearly to the Yale line. ried the ball nearly to the Yale line, where after a brave battle by Yale it was pushed over for a touchdown. Fortunately for Princeton, the goal was kicked and six points scored, for ton minutes after Yale had pushed the Tigers back to their goal, through McBriae's great punting and a block kick gave Yale a

Although Brown's lightning work in getting through the line was responsible for the blocked kick, the failure of the goal immediately after still gave the Princetons the lend, six to five.

A SPECTACULAR GOAL.

The Tigers felt fairly easy with this small margin until five minutes later, when Sharpe, Yale's half-back, brought the entire Biue crowd to their feet by one opponent's 15-yard line. It was little wonopponent's 15-yard line. It was little wonder, therefore, that Poe's gick, which will prabably live forever in Princeton's football annals, coming when the entire Tiger crowd had almost given up hope, should have electrified the Princeton cohoris to such a degree that they went fairly crasy with joy. And this pent up enthusiasm burst forth with renewed energy sixty seconds later when the referee's whistie and the battle in one of the greatest seconds later when the referee and ended the battle in one of the greats demonstrations ever seen on Yale field.

DISCHARGING THE CARGO.

Coffee from the Plague Infected Steamer being Placed on Lighters. NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Dr. Doty, after a thorough examination of the history of the bubonic plague on board the steam-ship J. W. Taylor, which arrived from Santos last Saturday, decided to discharge Santos last Saturday, decided to decides the cargo of coffee into lighters and keep the loaded lighters at quarantine for a period of eighty days. Dr. Doty believes that the exposure of the coffee to the air at this season of the year will be ample protection from the danger of infection.

NELSON COUNTY VOTE.

Kentucky's Highest Court Decides in Frankfort, KY., Nov. 25.—The Court of Appeals to-day clinched Taylors right to 1,197 Nelson county votes.

The court, all the judges concurring, refused to dissolve the followed in a saked by Goebel's attorneys.

The votes in controversy were certified for "W. P.", instead of "W. S." Taylor.

or "W P" instead of "W S." Taylor, Judge Jones, of Nelson county, ordered these votes counted for W. S. Taylor and this order is affirmed.

SUMMARY OF TO-DAY'S NEWS.

-Views of prominent men concerning the nomination of Senator John W. Daniel for Fresident. -The body of Mr. Aivey found in the canal.

A Virginia girl becomes a baroness.

Great work at the ship-yards.

Rev. J. R. Harrison's forty-fourth anniversary at immanuel.

The Wadley case decided.

Interesting gossip about the coming Legislature.

State.

A sensational shooting affair in Pulaski approved by public opinion.

Three men hurt in a freight collision.

A negro in Nansemond jail, after making a daring but unsuccessful attempt to escape, tries to kill himfelf with a pistol which he managed to conceal.

Interesting meeting at Mathews Courthouse in the interest of the Richmond and Tidewater railroad.

A tug turned upside down and her fireman drowned.

General.

General. -Vice-President buried with impressive ceremonies.

—Princeton defeats Yale on the gridiron,

—Goebel will abide by decision of Electoral Board.

Foreign.

Foreign. -Aguinaldo deserted and his army dispersed.

-Boers anticipate speedy reduction of Ladysmith.

-Mafeking apparently hard pressed.

-General Methuen's victory truitless of results.